Did You Know?

Both paper currency and coins can carry viruses and bacteria that can live on the surfaces and easily transfer to your skin or onto other objects after touching it. Research has found physical currency changes hands at least 55 times a year or almost once a week.

CSB Chuckles

Why did the football team go to the bank?

To get their quarterback.

Mel Boutain

Mel was born in Thief River Falls. She went to elementary school in Goodridge and high school at Sparks High School in Sparks, NV where she graduated. She moved back to Minnesota and worked at Marvin's for 5 years before managing Subway in Roseau for 22 years. Mel has 2 stepsons: Nate & Brad, as well as 3 kids: Devin, Crystal & Cassi. She married her husband, Darryl Boutain, in 2012. Together they have 9 Grandkids: Measha, Brydn, Jace, Raya, Scarlett, Hudson, Miles, Nicklaus, Shelby, and 1 more on the way. Outside of work, Mel enjoys camping, fishing, ice fishing, celebrating family birthdays, and loves her plants. Mel started at CSB in 2022 and loves her coworkers, the customers, counting money, and learning new things.

Jessie was born in Crookston and grew up in St. Cloud. She moved to Osakis in 8th grade where she graduated high school in 2009. She moved to Annapolis, MD when she turned 18 and moved to Roseau in 2016 and started at Polaris before working at Verizon where she managed for 6 years until starting at CSB. Jessie and her fiance Christopher have 2 children: Avah and Maverick. Jessie has 1 older sister, her Irish Twin, named Sabina; 1 younger brother, Michael; and 3 nephews. Her father is from India and she has been lucky enough to visit there twice. Her mother, Mindy, is her absolute best friend! Outside of work, Jessie's kids may say her hobby is cleaning, but she truly enjoys writing, spending time with family, and going on walks and park dates. Jessie loves the work-family balance at CSB. She also enjoys working with customers on a daily basis.

Taylor Berberich

Taylor went to school in Grygla and graduated in 2018. She will complete her bachelors in Psychology from Bemidji State University this coming December. She also took 4 years of German Languages so she can read, write, and speak some German. Taylor has a "fur-son" named Jerico, who is a 5 year old purebred German Shepherd. Jerico was born in Germany and even remembers some commands in German. In Taylor's free time, she loves to kayak, fish, ride on her side-by-side, and enjoys crafts and playing the guitar. Taylor's favorite part about her job is interacting with customers and learning new things daily.
